As a woman, you should always try at all costs to obey your husband and treat him with so much value and respect. If you don't value, obey, and show your respect towards him. How will you then expect him to be happy? A man can not leave you if you are the type that treats him well.

No caring

There is responsibility for every woman who is married, and part of this responsibility is caring for your man. As a man cares for you, and help provide your need, you should also learn to take good care of him too. Who will wash and iron his dress if not you? If he is the type that goes to work early in the morning, also try to wake up and prepare his meal and arrange the dress he put on.

Even when he is in the workplace, try to call or text him. Checking up on him and doing so much of your work as a woman will make him have you in his mind. But neglecting all these can cause him to quickly leave you, especially if any other woman treats him well.

Lack of Attention

If you don't give your husband your attention, who else will you give it?

As the woman of the house, you have to know when your man is troubled and come closer to him and try your best to understand why he is disturbed.

Listen to him when he is talking to you. Never you walk away from him no matter what. Show him that you want to be the one he should be thinking of in anything. Show him that you are always ready to be with him and care about him in any way that you can. Doing all these makes you a better wife and a woman of his heart.

Inability To Cook

It is said if you want to love and show a man how much you love and appreciate him, then cook for him. Food is one of the ways a woman can use to walk into a man's heart. So if you don't cook for your man, maybe because you don't know how to do so. Why not talk to him about it and go and look for a place or where you can learn it. If he is a man that loves you, he will be happy.

Not being good on the bed.

Some women may say, what did this get to do here. Well, it has a lot to do, because a man will never be happy with his woman if she never satisfies him. If he finds it hard also to satisfy you as a woman don't just leave him alone and take it as if it is not your problem. You both should try always to make sure that you satisfy each other.

No More Love

If he doesn't love you again or have feelings for you, then you need to sit up and know the reason behind it and try to fix it. Learn what exactly is lacking in your marriage and how to fix it. Start treating him as if you both are still new boyfriend and girlfriend, wear attractive dresses.

Lack Of Trust

If this is lacking in your marriage and you keep calm, bear in mind that you are making a huge mistake. He can cheat on you, he can leave you for another woman, and he can never believe or agree quickly in whatever you are saying and all this makes a man start losing interest in his woman.

The nonchalant attitude of the woman.

Leaving a life as if nothing concerns you is not good. You don't have to feel less concerned about anything about your marriage. Don't think that all the problems are left for the man of the house to solve or fix.

If you are doing so stop it. When you look at your man and notice that he is not happy or something troubles him, go to him and try to know what is wrong.

Cheating

This is one of the crucial things that cannot only make a man to leave his wife but will also break the marriage apart easily. When the woman or the man starts cheating, it is the beginning of the downfall in that marriage.

When your man is cheating, you need to make sure you try and stop him from doing so because if he is the type that doesn't hold his emotions, he may break up with you one day and got married to the other woman.
